How NPWorldwide Benefits You

Working with an NPWorldwide member recruitment firm offers numerous benefits to clients, including:

Boutique service

Work with an owner, partner, or recruiter with a strategic interest in your success. Employers receive superior results and the ability to develop long-term partnerships.

Single point of contact

No matter where you have hiring needs, a single NPWorldwide member can manage the entire recruitment process. You don't need to spend time vetting new recruitment partners for one-off assignments.

Professional

NPWorldwide membership is offered on a selective basis to recruitment firms with a proven track record of both experience and success. Trust, reliability, and integrity are hallmarks of our cooperative environment.

Backed by a network of peers

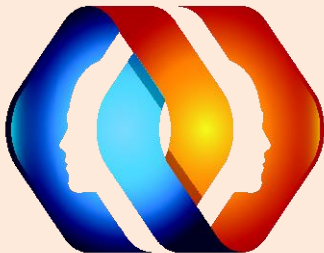

Whether you have a specialized local role to fill or need to find talent overseas, NPWorldwide members rely on their network connections to deliver results.

Local and global knowledge

NPWorldwide members provide access to affiliated firms with market knowledge, language and cultural sensitivity, legal expertise, and best-fit candidates for openings in the countries where you are hiring.

More About Our Firm

Our search strategy is based on a combination of industry knowledge, an in-depth resource network and a dedicated team consistently completing assignments. In partnership with our clients, NTF searches for the right person who matches your corporate culture, has the appropriate industry experience and who will provide immediate results for your organization.
